WE LEAD BUSY LIVES AT OSSIAN.

. . . WE LEARN OUR LESSONS

. . . WE WORK TOGETHER

. . . WE PLAY TOGETHER

. . . WE MAKE MANY FRIENDS

The Home Economics Classes are shown a recipe by an Indian-Michigan demonstrator.

AS SCHOOL TAKES UP IN THE FALL MANY NEW

Larry Patten looks up from his yearbook work in time for his picture to be taken.

Our Bluffton-Wells County Public Library truck keeps us well supplied in reading material.

Miss Mahnensmith shows the new teachers, Mr. Allen, Mrs. Tyler, and Mr. VanMeter, some of the teaching methods.

R. Swaim and D. Hoopengardner are engaged in the use of the new machines in the shop.

STUDENTS, TEACHERS, AND FACILITIES APPEAR

Sponsored by
OSSIAN HARDWARE
Ossian, Indiana

The new trophy case, in the lobby of the new gym, is admired by Brad Blair, Larry Patten, and John Smith.

DON'S CHAT AND CHEW was the scene of many festive occasions following the ball games and after school.

Talking to the office over the intercom is Joan Hostetter.

Paul Long looks up the title of a book for one of his many reports.

B. Gemmer is caught here demonstrating one of the year's fads. You guessed it! A hula hoop.

The speech class act out some of the play which has possibilities of becoming the Senior Play for 1959.

The seventh period physics class have experiments every Monday.

THE SCIENCE AND MATH CLASSES

Mr. Fullhart shows Tom Fiedler how to complete his problem by diagram on the board.

Mr. Colman's chemistry class and their lab always have some exciting happenings.

Students scurry to their next class as the school day nears end.

WORK OUT FORMULAS FOR THE FUTURE

Mr. Van Meter, physics teacher, illustrates Newton's law of gravitation to pupils Linda Archbold and Dave Gemmer.

The Cheer Block for the 1959 basketball season spell out "Hi" in a yell session, getting ready for a coming ball game. The yell leaders are: Becky Drage, Becky Woodward, Adella Drayer, and Caryl Habegger.

WE ALL HAD OUR LITTLE CHORES TO DO

C. Kelly, D. Biberstine, M. Smith, and B. Franke are the cook's helpers at noon. They wash dishes and silverware besides cleaning up the kitchen after dinner.

Richard Springer leaves the guidance office with a look of relief on his face.

Becky Woodward answers the telephone as she takes her turn as office girl.

Larry Grace, David Martin, Richard Hickman, and Terry Dishong raise the flag every day.

Sponsored by
YODER GREEN HOUSE
Yoder, Indiana

Working in the office as part of her secretarial practice, Janice Hitzeman types a test.

The candidates, Lyle Quackenbush, Richard Springer, Bill Crane, Larry Patten, Barbara Williams, Becky Drage, Becky Woodward, and Linda Mahnensmith, await the big moment of the crowning.

THE CROWNING OF A KING AND QUEEN

The night was filled with beautiful gowns, handsome suits, soft music, and wonderful dancing.

Words cannot describe a moment like this.

The Kaehr Brothers provide enjoyable entertainment for the sweethearts.

The King and Queen, Richard Springer and Becky Woodward, lead their court in a special number.

MAKE FOR A WONDERFUL TIME AT THE SWEETHEART DANCE

The King and Queen ascend to their throne as the attendants stand in waiting.

Art class makes many different things during the course of the year.

The Juniors kept busy during the ball games by selling concessions.

A LITTLE PRACTICE AND PLANNING HELPS

The Freshmen introduced a new event this year. They presented a Freshman Play under the direction of Mrs. Mead.
